

Weston Hurd Employment Advisory - May 2013

ARE YOU READY TO COMPLY WITH OSHA REQUIREMENTS FOR HAZARD COMMUNICATION?

Prepared by Nancy A. Noall

Does your company use chemicals requiring labels and Safety Data Sheets? If so, OSHA requires that you train your employees on new label elements and Safety Data Sheets by December 1, 2013. If your employees are not yet trained on these requirements, your lawyers at Weston Hurd strongly recommend that you attend one of Spooner, Inc.'s "Train the Trainer" seminars in order to have your staff trained and in compliance with OSHA requirements by the December 1 deadline. See the link below from Spooner, Inc. (GHS Train the Trainer Series 2013) which provides information concerning when and where the seminars are held and what the cost of compliance would be.
