

MONICA L. FRANTZ

Associate Attorney MONICA L. FRANTZ focuses her practice on litigation and workers' compensation matters. Monica has litigated cases involving commercial disputes, employment law matters, product liability, workplace intentional tort, personal injury and wrongful death, premises liability, and construction claims and defects. Monica also advises employers on a broad range of employment law matters and represents insurance companies on coverage issues.

Prior to joining Weston Hurd, Monica served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Nancy A. Vecchiarelli, United States Magistrate Judge, in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio. In that position, Monica had the unique opportunity to gain extensive knowledge of federal civil procedure and a range of substantive civil matters.

Monica received her B.A. summa cum laude in 2010 from Walsh University and her J.D. summa cum laude in 2013 from Cleveland-Marshall College of Law. During law school, Monica worked as a research assistant; a teaching assistant for a first year legal writing course; and as a law clerk for a Cleveland law firm. She was also an Executive Editor of the Cleveland State Law Review. Monica obtained her Ohio Bar admission in 2013 and also has admission before the United States District Court for the Northern and Southern Districts of Ohio and the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. Monica is a member of the Ohio Association of Civil Trial Attorneys and the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association's Women in Law Section and Young Lawyers Section.
