

DEIRDRE G. HENRY

After receiving her B.S. from Bowling Green State University, her J.D. from the University of Toledo Law School and her Ohio Bar admission in 1977, DEIRDRE G. HENRY became an Ohio Assistant Attorney General (defending the Industrial Commission and the Bureau of Worker's Compensation in disability claims involving complex medical issues). As a Partner with Weston Hurd LLP, Deirdre represents employers on VSSR and workers' compensation cases and is the Chair of the firm's Workers' Compensation practice. Deirdre also focuses her practice on matters involving employment, medical malpractice, long term care, legal malpractice, and the defense of directors' and officers' claims. Deirdre has admission in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Ohio and the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals. She is a member of the Ohio Association of Civil Trial Attorneys Medical Malpractice Section, the Ohio State and Cleveland Metropolitan Bar associations, and the Defense Research Institute. In 2009, Deirdre spoke before the Ohio Chapter of the American College of Surgeons on the topic of Deposition Preparedness/Mock Deposition. Her presentation focused on how to prepare for a deposition, how to endure a deposition, and how to answer questions most effectively. In 2007, Deirdre was named an Ohio Super Lawyer in the category of Civil Defense Litigation by Thomson Reuters and she is an AV-rated attorney by Martindale-Hubbell.
