

JACK S. KLUZNIK

JACK S. KLUZNIK is a Partner with Weston Hurd LLP and Chair of the firm's Litigation Section and Employment and Civil Rights Practice Group. He focuses his practice on litigation, employment and labor, civil rights, intellectual property, copyright, trademark, commercial and education law. He has extensive trial experience, both jury and bench in matters involving wrongful termination, age discrimination, sex discrimination, race discrimination, sexual harassment, directors' and officers' liability claims, and commercial litigation matters including restrictive covenants and trade secret claims.

After receiving his B.A. summa cum laude and his M.A. with distinction from Ohio University, Jack received his J.D. from Yale Law School. He was granted admission to the Ohio Bar in 1977 and subsequently to the United States District Court for the Northern and Southern Districts of Ohio and the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Jack is a member of the Ohio State Bar Association's Labor and Employment Section Council and he has presented at the Midwest Labor and Employment Conference on the topic of "Professionalism and Civility in Depositions, Mediations and Settlements." Jack is a member of the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association, the Defense Research Institute, the Ohio Association of Civil Trial Attorneys, the John M. Manos Inn of Court, the Employment-American Inns of Court, and the Court of Nisi Prius. He is also a volunteer in the CMBA 3R's teaching program, a board member of the non-profit Canalway Partners whose mission is to extend the Towpath Trail to downtown Cleveland, a member of the regional faculty of the National Institute of Trial Advocacy, and a former adjunct faculty member of the Case Western Reserve University School of Law. Jack is a participant on the CMBA committee to develop and present a series of interactive seminars on professionalism and civility for lawyers in various aspects of the legal practice including depositions, mediation and settlement, and business transactions. He has also presented at the Council of Smaller Enterprises' Annual Small Business Conference on the topic of the “Workplace Investigative Process” and has conducted diversity training for supervisors of a large governmental employer.

An AV-rated attorney by Martindale-Hubbell, Jack has been listed in the Best Lawyers in America for Entertainment Law and Labor and Employment Law since 2007 and has been recognized as an Ohio Super Lawyer in the areas of Civil Rights/First Amendment and Employment Litigation Defense since 2009.
