

MARK F. KRUSE

MARK F. KRUSE is a Partner with Weston Hurd LLP. Mark and other members of his previous firm, Kahn Kruse Co., LPA, joined Weston Hurd in January 2017. An experienced attorney and litigator, Mark represents clients in both state and federal courts throughout the United States, and is admitted to the Ohio Bar, various United States District Courts, and the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Mark's clients are engaged in a variety of industries and principally include construction companies (general contractors, subcontractors, materialmen), manufacturers, distributors and commercial property owners. Mark handles a wide range of complex construction, business and commercial disputes, with areas of concentration including litigation, complex contract disputes, business torts, commercial real estate issues, business and partner issues (including break-up and wind down), asset purchases/sales, fiduciary claims, corporate director & officer liability/defense, lien issues, employment related claims, insurance coverage issues, and intellectual property protection and trade secret litigation.

Mark also represents investors who have lost funds in investments due to the advice, action or inaction of financial advisers and broker-dealers. These disputes can be resolved in courts of law, or often through an alternative dispute resolution process within the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). Investors claims often arise out of a financial adviser giving inappropriate investment advice, being improperly supervised, misrepresenting an investment status or potential, or placing client's funds in inappropriate or unsuitable investments.

Mark's client base understands that he personally cares about protecting their interests. Mark strives to help clients achieve the best possible solutions, and always keeps an eye on the client's all important bottom line.

Mark received his B.S. from Bowling Green State University and his J.D. from Cleveland-Marshall College of Law. Mark has been recognized as one of the “Top Lawyers in Ohio” by American Lawyer Media, and has earned an AV Preeminent Rating by Martindale-Hubbell. In 2019, Mark was named a Fellow of the Construction Lawyers Society of America, an invitation-only international honorary association composed of preeminent lawyers specializing in construction law and related fields.
